

Prayer for the Second Session of Chapter 2017

March 26–28, 2020

God of Mercy,

You have fashioned us in your image, called us into this Institute, and sent us forth in mission to a suffering world.

We continue journeying through the door of your mercy, that sacred place of graced encounter and ongoing transformation.

We stand at the crossroads of a new moment, linked to, but different from the past.

As we prepare for the work of an unknown future, give us trust in your unfailing providence, passion for the Gospel
belief in one another,
and hearts aflame with your mercy and love.

Keep us open to the surprises of your grace, and as we prepare for this next session of our Chapter,
keep us faithful to you,
to one another,
and to the charism of mercy.

Amen.
